

The Church Door

FROM THE PASTOR

I was excited when I saw the first day of spring noted on the calendar this year, especially after the long and hard winter that we endured (I see more snow is forecast for Monday of Holy Week). Alas, Michigan does not give up easily from winter into spring and I am still waiting for some spring weather.

Recently the confirmation class was studying the Old testament lesson of King David and Bathsheba. I am always struck by that passage which reads, “In the spring of the year, the time when kings go out to battle, David sent Joab with his officers and all Israel with him; they ravaged the Ammonites, and besieged Rabbah. But David remained at Jerusalem.” (2 Samuel 11:1 (NRSV)).

It is that part, “In the spring of the year, the time when kings go out to battle” that I notice. Spring is a time for new life and growth but the warmer weather also makes it a time to wage war. Maybe it is no coincidence that Jesus waged war against the forces of evil in the spring. We mark his victory over sin, death, and the devil on Easter Sunday as he was raised from the dead. It is such an important event that the early church decided that it would be fitting and proper if we celebrated that event weekly and that is why we worship on Sunday instead of Saturday, the Sabbath day. Sunday’s are “little Easters”.

On another note, we have not yet heard about our Slovak summer trainee. However, it is time to start thinking about whether you would be willing to house the trainee. Would you please let me know if you are willing? Samuel Lutheran is still without a pastor so it looks like we will be going it alone, but I plan to share the trainee with churches in the Stony Lake Conference and possibly the Episcopal churches in order to give the trainee a broader experience. As I get more details about if and when, I will pass that information along to you.

Happy Spring to you — whenever it really gets here.

I pray that everyone has a blessed and glorious Easter.

Pastor Dennis

The Church Door

The “Church Door” title is taken from the “Theses Door” of the Castle Church which has made Wittenberg so famous.

Just as the “Theses Door” was used as a bulletin board for notices in Luther’s time, this newsletter can also be used by our members to communicate with each other and to our guests about church events. Published monthly it is available the last Sunday of the month.

Please contact Cindy Borreson (616.846.2477 or cborreson@charter.net) to insert articles for next month’s newsletter.

There are two days in every week about which we should not worry.

One is yesterday, with its mistakes and cares, its aches and pains. Yesterday has passed forever beyond our control.

The other day is tomorrow, with its possible adversities and blunders. Until its sun rises we have no stake in tomorrow, for it is yet unborn.

That leave only one day — today.

Anyone can fight the battle of just one day.

It is only when we add the burden of those two awful eternities; yesterday and tomorrow, that contentment will escape us.

You cannot pray the Lord's prayer and even once say "I".

You cannot pray the Lord's prayer and even once say "My".

Nor can you pray the Lord's prayer and not pray for one another, And when you ask for daily bread, you must include your brother.

For others are included... in each and every plea,

From the beginning to the end of it, it does not once say "Me".

The Ward Family— Spotlight on Members

The White House may have Barack, Michelle, Sasha and Malia but DML has Jeff, Michelle, Olivia and Braxton. Our very own first family as Jeff Ward is DML council president.

Unlike Barack, Jeff also has another job in addition to being president. He is in charge of Food Services for Grandville Public Schools. Michelle is employed as a Certified Athletic Trainer for Hackley/Mercy and also is an athletic trainer for West Michigan Christian Schools, which means she attends many sporting events.

Olivia, 4 and Braxton 1½ are keeping their parents busy and engaged in fun family activities such as playing in the snow and visiting playgrounds. Furthermore Olivia is a successful pre-school student.

Jeff's grew up attending DML with his mother Jan Ward, who is also an active church member.

Jeff states, like many he wandered away from the church, but felt God's stretched arms pulling him back to worship. The Wards like the caring and close knit family feel of DML. DML is the sort of place "where everybody knows your name." Jeff also believes that the sermons offer information that can be related to every day life.

We are very fortunate to have this dynamic family making DML their church home. All are sure to agree we are blessed by the presence of the Ward's warmth, outgoingness and humor.

The next time you see Olivia ask her about the alphabet and the next time you see Jeff thank him for his dedication as council president.

Thanks Jeff!

All Things Are Full of God

By: John Stuart Blackie (1809—1895)

ALL things are full of God. Thus spoke
Wise thales in the days
When subtle Greece to thought awoke
And soared in lofty ways.
And now what wisdom have we more?
No sage divining-rod
Hath taught than this a deeper lore,
ALL THINGS ARE FULL OF GOD.

The light that gloweth in the sky
And shimmers in the sea,
That quivers in the painted fly
And gems the picture lea,
The million hues of Heaven above
And Earth below are one
And every lightful eye doth love
The primal light, the Sun.

Even so, all vital virtue flows
From life's first fountain, God;
And he who feels, and he who knows,
Doth feel and know from God.
As fishes swim in briny sea,
As fowl do float in air,
From thy embrace we cannot flee;
We breathe, and Thou art there.

Go, take thy glass, astronomer,
And all the firth survey
Oof sphere harmonious linked to sphere,
In endless bright array.
All that far-reaching Science there
Can measure with her rod,
All powers, all laws, are but the fair
Embodied thoughts of God.
